If Bob Dylan leaves his guitar on the left or the Rock band Status Quo gets very quiet, then everyone just takes a break - in the dressing rooms of the world famous Festspielhaus Baden-Baden (Germany). Here the German bed manufacturer Ruf now ensures relaxed hours: The bed specialist provided the location with its luxurious loungers "Lido" so that artists like Anna Netrebko or Anne-Sophie Mutter can relax between stressful rehearsals and highly concentrated performances. The special feature of "Lido": Here you can not only sit well, but sleep well restorative. Because the couch is both: sofa and bed in one.
