Villeroy & Boch enters new territory this year: as well as products from the areas of bathroom and wellness as well as tableware, the ceramic manufacturer is now also introducing home furniture.

Together with the licensed products laminate, luminaires and bathroom textiles, the Villeroy & Boch-Mosaïque collection can now be used to equip the entire home with Villeroy & Boch products. Divided into the areas of living, dining and sleeping, the product portfolio includes upholstered and chest furniture as well as beds and bedroom furniture.

The collection was created in cooperation with the manufacturers Collection C, Fey & Co., Geha and W.

Schillig. Striking design highlights bridge the 270-year corporate tradition with the new home furniture. For example, "Villeroy & Boch-Mosaïque" uses ceramic elements and a pattern reminiscent of the famous Mettlacher plates.
